

GROWERS TO STORE COTTON GENERALLY

Warehouses Being Established All Over State by Stock Companies.

NEGRO TERRORIZES TRAIN

Gets Into White Car and Fires Revolver Promiscuously. Rowland Case.

RALEIGH, N. C., September 9.—The work which is being done by President Charles C. Moore, of the North Carolina Cotton Association, is manifesting itself in the formation of warehouse companies to store cotton and make advances upon it. This county has one of these, and charters have been granted for others in a few counties. Today another was chartered at Concord, John P. Allison being a prominent stockholder. The amount of the authorized capital stock is $100,000.

Third District appeals will be called in the Supreme Court this week. The docket is rather light. Next week there will be argument in the case from this county, in which Judge Long of the Superior Court, fined the Southern Railway $30,000 for selling tickets at more than two and a quarter cents per mile.

Negro Shoots Up Train.

A negro named Guilford Todd was placed in jail here today for shooting up a train on the Norfolk and Southern near Wendell Saturday. He went into the white car, and when the conductor tried to put him out he pulled his pistol and fired right and left. The conductor fled, but at Wendell the police and citizens captured Todd, after he had tried to kill the chief, who had a very narrow escape. A negro named Deagan was arrested because he was supporting Todd and was putting up a fight.

Rev. Sylvester Betts, the head of the prohibition movement here, says the talk that the election on prohibition or dispensary will not be held December 27th amounts to nothing.

State Auditor B. F. Dixon went to Nashville today to speak at an educational rally to-morrow, at which several thousand people are expected to be present.

Rowland Murder Trial.

There seems now to be no doubt that the trial of Dr. and Mrs. Rowland of the poisoning charge will begin October 1st. It is going to be a fight to a finish, as everybody recognizes the fact that the Rowlands are in a desperate situation.

Clerk of Superior Court William M. Russ, who was out of the city Saturday, admitted the truth of the report that he would be a candidate for Congress in this district. In May he met Secretary Taft at Washington, and the latter took a great fancy to him. Mr. Russ was for a number of years Mayor of Raleigh, and filled that position with much ability, as has been the case in the management of his present office. For a long time he was a commercial traveler, and had a wide acquaintance east of the Mississippi. It is understood that Congressman Pou will be a candidate for re-election, and there ought to be a very pretty contest between these gentlemen.

Recent Damage to Cotton.

There is very considerable variance in the reports as to the damage done cotton by the August drought. While mill men put five per cent as their limit, a number of farmers go much beyond this and say 10 to 15 per cent. One mill man said today he thought that 10 per cent would fully cover it. It is unquestionable that the drought did damage, and the poorer the cultivation the greater amount of damage done.

Governor Glenn returned this afternoon from a speaking trip in Northampton county. He may in a day or two go away for a rest of a fortnight. He admits that he is very tired and has canceled a number of speaking appointments and has declined a great many invitations to speak. He and Auditor Dixon are in constant request as speakers, here, there and everywhere.

Improvements at the Soldiers' Home in the way of electric lights, within and without the buildings, the dining-room and kitchen for the hospital, will prove very great conveniences to the inmates, the number of whom is steadily increasing.

Peace Institute, now owned entirely by the Presbyterian Church, began its fall term today. Professor Henry Jerome Stockard being the acting president.

TALKS WITH LADY ABOUT SUICIDES; THEN DRINKS POISON.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., September 9.—Olivier Norden, twenty-three years old, living in the southern suburbs, killed himself last night with laudanum. He was not found until some hours after taking the poison, and was then in a state of coma, too far gone for two physicians to save his life. In the afternoon he had taken a walk with a young lady, when his conversation was about suicide, and he exhibited a bottle of laudanum.

RHODE ISLAND BUILDING AND GOV. HIGGINS

This is Rhode Island Day at the Jamestown Exposition. Many citizens of Little Rhody will be participants in the celebration. Governor James H. Higgins and staff arrived yesterday.

Rappahannock People Honor Memory of Judge H. M. Dudley

Many Attend Funeral of Banker and Farmer Jurist, Who Dropped Dead.

WASHINGTON, VA., September 9.—The funeral services of Judge H. M. Dudley, who dropped dead in the Rappahannock National Bank, of Washington, Va., were conducted Thursday by Rev. S. N. Athey, from the Baptist Church at this place, and the burial took place at the family burying-ground, about five miles from town.

The long funeral procession bore testimony to the esteem in which Judge Dudley was held by the people throughout the county, and every person who attended the services seemed to realize that a most valuable man had been removed from the county.

Judge Dudley was fifty-two years old last May, and had been practicing law in this county thirty years, having been admitted to the bar on the 15th day of May, 1877, and having been appointed Judge of the County Court for Rappahannock county by the Legislature of 1887, which position he filled until the county court system had been abolished by the last Constitution of Virginia.

In 1900 a bank was organized at this place, and it was almost entirely due to his energy and business qualifications that it was opened at this place, and in a short time after he started the banking business here, under the name and style of The Rappahannock Bank of Culpeper, Va. The business was in such an extent that it was converted into a national bank, of which Judge Dudley had been president.

He married Miss Eugenia Eastham, of Texas, whose parents were originally from this county, and besides his widow he leaves two children, an aged mother, who resides in Salem with her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Moffett, and a brother, Mr. F. B. Dudley, of this place.

The Circuit Court was in session when he died, and suitable resolutions, which were approved by every member of the bar and court officers, were ordered spread upon the records, and court ordered adjourned through respect to his memory, notwithstanding that some urgent business was ready to be disposed of.

Deceased had long been a member of Mr. Marshall Lodge, A. F. and M., and he was buried with Masonic honors.

Besides being an active practitioner and president of the bank at this place, he was secretary and treasurer of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Rappahannock county.

STEPPED ON GLASS.

Little White Boy Came Near Bleeding to Death.

David Sims, a nine-year-old white boy, living at No. 16 East Canal Street, stepped on a piece of glass yesterday evening, severing a small artery in his foot. The wound bled profusely, and there was danger that the child would bleed to death before assistance could be summoned. The city ambulance had a run of over two miles from its house, out on the upper end of Second Street, and on its arrival, Dr. Strole sewed up and cauterized the wound. The little fellow was much weakened by the loss of blood, but is reported to be doing well.

JUDGE H. M. DUDLEY.

GUESTS OF HONOR OF MRS. LONG

Miss Mimie Adoue and Miss Nancy Gordon Jones Recipients of Much Attention.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ROXBORO, N. C., September 9.—A brilliant reception was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Long, complimentary to their guests, Misses Mimie Adoue, of Galveston, Texas, and Nancy Gordon Jones, of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Long, assisted by J. A. Long, Jr., and Miss Annie Reads Long, received the guests, while Mrs. R. J. Tague was high priestess of the punch bowl.

Music, laughter and song alternated through parlors and halls, testifying to the good fellowship of the guests and happy hospitality of host and hostess.

An entertaining contest calculated to test the ingenuity of the assembled guests was a series of questions, the correct answer the name of a well-known author. Last this should prove too easy, "Little Misses" claimed a share of attention, and proved as puzzling to the masculine intellect in fiction as she has always done in reality. The prizes were two gold hats, one of which was won by Miss Adoue and Mr. T. E. Austin, and the other by Miss Jones and Mr. H. W. Winstead.

These young men, apart from their natural chivalry, not seeing any immediate prospects of utilizing said hats, gracefully yielded their interests to their respective partners. The award to Miss Adoue was made by Dr. W. L. Foushee, of Richmond College, Richmond, Va., in a graceful and witty speech. Hon. Wm. D. Merritt, of the Roxboro bar, with his characteristic eloquence and happy manner, presented the next award to Miss Jones.

Elegant refreshments were served, and the assembled guests reluctantly departed at a late hour, each voting the evening as one of unalloyed pleasure.

Miss Jones and Miss Adoue, by their charming courtesy, wit and talent, have made many friends during their brief stay, and their departure will prove a source of genuine regret to those who were so fortunate as to have made their acquaintance.

CRACKED HIS SKULL.

Mary Playfully Hurlled a Whetstone at William.

William Shafer (colored), living at No. 317 Richard Street, was hit in the head with a whetstone by Mary Adams yesterday morning. The blow resulted in a severe scalp wound and a cracked skull, which narrowly missed being really fractured.

Elegant refreshments were served, and the assembled guests reluctantly departed at a late hour, each voting the evening as one of unalloyed pleasure.

Dr. Strole took several stitches in the wound, and took William home in the ambulance. The woman has not been arrested, as it is not believed that any harm was intended.

HIT WITH BRICK.

Negro Woman Hurt Paving Stones at One Another.

Celia Foster was hit in the head with a brick by Lou Johnston last night, the row taking place at 1701 Richards Street. Both women called each other names, and then the paving stones began to fly. When the ambulance came, Celia was found to have a large scalp wound, and to be seriously knocked out by the blow. Dr. Strole sewed up the gaps. The woman declined to go to the City Hospital for further treatment.

DEAF MUTE LAD IS VICTIM OF FLAMES

Charred Body of George Wilson Found Near Window of Observer Building.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
CHARLOTTE, N. C., September 9.—One life was lost and the newspaper plant damaged to the extent of $25,000 by fire in The Observer Building at 1:30 this morning.

The one fatal victim of the flames was George Wilson, a poor deaf mute lad, aged fifteen years, who had been employed in the job department for the summer. Wilson had been in the habit of crawling behind type cases on the third floor in the job department and sleeping. He had been ordered repeatedly, but disobeyed the order, and during the progress of the fire employees remembered having seen the boy around the building early in the night. At 3:30 o'clock, when the fire was under control, his charred body was found near a window from which he had attempted to escape.

The rapidity with which the fire spread and the burning out of the electric wires drove the printers and editors from the building, and they repaired to the plant of the Charlotte News, across the street, whence the Observer was issued this morning. The two upper floors, embracing the entire job department and bindery, were wrecked and much valuable machinery, including one of the battery of seven linotype machines, was destroyed. The Observer will be issued from the old plant to-morrow as usual.
